Thank You for Prayers - Owen is a fighter, he is such an amazing little man and I am so thankful you are all praying for him. Sick Kids is truly amazing, and the staff are phenomenal, they are all working so hard with Owen's health issues. So many people are going through similar things and its awesome to meet other Christians who share inspiration, encouragement and their words of wisdom. Continue to pray that they will be able to figure out his stomach issues and that his heart will continue to stabilize and stay stable.

Lost & Found - Just a reminder that as the season's change and we are wearing more outerwear, please try to keep track of coats, footwear, personal items (purses, etc) that you may place in the coatroom. With our building open to church members as well as the general public we cannot be responsible for missing items. Please be sure to check the Lost & Found regularly. Already the Lost & Found has quite a number of items in it.
